6. Board Member Reports

- Director Claeys welcomed the new board members. She stated that campaigning is a service in and of itself. She is looking forward to working together. She shared on a personal note, excited to have five women on the board, but upsetting that no women in board leadership.
- Director Tagliareni shared her thoughts about what transpired in the new board's first moments of board governance. She felt it important to have diversity of thought in board leadership, and wants to see the board succeed. She hopes students are at the forefront when the board is making decisions. All students, every student has a place in this district. She will keep fighting for students and hopes to move forward as a board.
- Director Bohanna welcomed new board members and looks forward to serving together.
- Director Barthole shared she is excited to be here and honored to serve. She is looking forward to diversity of thought that all are going to share.
- Director Burk thanked those who welcomed her. It's been a long journey, and at times was difficult. She is excited to take on this new role. She too hopes everyone can work together, and she will lead with kindness and respect. She wants to bring the community to the table, and is eager to learn more about the ins and outs of being on the board.
- Director Murphy appreciates the warm welcomes received and conversations had. He thanked those who worked on the campaigns and those who have served. There are hard choices to be made, and he will make the best decisions possible based on the information.

7. Superintendent Reports

Dr. Pruitt welcomed the new board members.
